

WOMEN IN PUBLIC FINANCE
BOSTON CHAPTER

| 2025 in Review!

Celebrating a year of connection,
leadership, learning, and community.

The Boston Chapter of Women in Public Finance is a dynamic, active,
and supportive network where women thrive.

A MESSAGE FROM THE BOSTON CHAPTER OF WOMEN IN PUBLIC FINANCE (BWPF) BOARD

- As we reflect on another remarkable year, we are grateful for each member, sponsor, and partner who made Boston Women in Public Finance a thriving, supportive, and inspiring network.
- This past year brought together emerging leaders, seasoned professionals, students, and allies—each contributing to a community grounded in empowerment and growth. We are proud to share highlights from an exciting year of programming, recognition, and engagement.

MEET MELODY MASUNDA – 2025 SCHOLARSHIP & MEMBERSHIP DRIVE RAFFLE WINNER

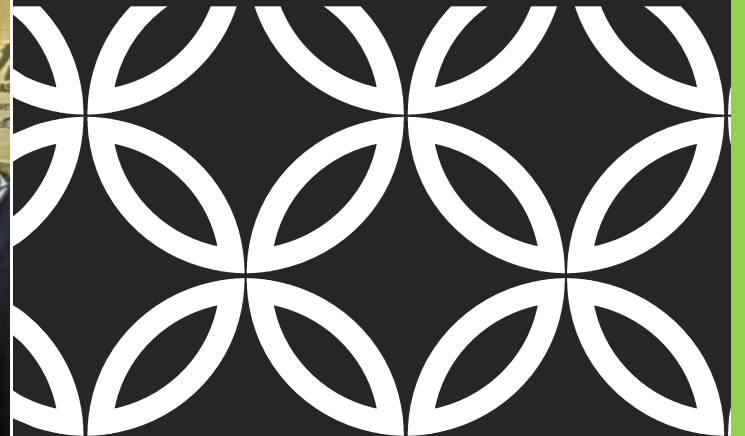

- This year, we were thrilled to award Melody Masunda a complimentary registration to the Women in Public Finance Annual Conference.
- A Suffolk University student and BWPF Scholarship recipient, Melody deeply embodies our mission:
 - Uplifting women in the industry
 - Carrying forward mentorship
 - Celebrating collaboration and community
- Her reflections on joining WPF—including receiving the BWPF Scholarship before becoming a member—remind us why investing in the next generation matters. Melody's vision for a more inclusive and impact-driven industry is inspiring, and we look forward to seeing what she accomplishes next.
