Why Become a Member of Women in Public Finance ("WPF")?

Networking and Community	▪ Broaden your network of public finance professionals – with access to over 950 members in 40 states and territories ▪ Connect with industry leaders, including investment bankers, legal counsel, municipal advisors, trustees, issuers, and many other consultants ▪ Meet professionals outside of your state and sector – women with whom you might not otherwise cross paths ▪ Give back and help other women succeed in their career
Business Development	▪ For issuer members: access a diverse community of professionals who can share ideas and best practices beyond your local network and existing vendor relationships ▪ For private sector members: deepen relationships with clients and potential clients and build female-led deal teams
Leadership	▪ Gain exposure to current leaders – "if you can see it, you can be it" ▪ Pursue leadership opportunities on WPF's committees and Board ▪ Gain skills and experience to take the next step in your career
Education	▪ Attend in-person events and virtual educational seminars to stay informed and connected on industry-relevant, leadership and professional development topics ▪ Join our widely attended national Annual Conference at a discounted rate and access valuable networking opportunities, along with interesting and informative panels and speakers
Mentorship	▪ Participate in our structured and guided mentorship program to foster supportive professional relationships around the country and across job functions
Recruiting	▪ Foster connections that may prove valuable in finding your next career opportunity or in recruiting your next team member ▪ Access our exclusive public finance job board where members can post positions and view openings
Scholarship	▪ Support annual scholarships to students interested in public finance and women wanting to advance their careers by obtaining industry certifications
Chapter Participation	▪ Join one (or more!) of 24 local chapters supporting and connecting women in our industry across the country
